

A Frank Discussion on PTSD and Traumatic Brain Injury

Colonel Rickie N. Hagan, a Bronze Star recipient during the Iraq Campaign, has over 37 years collective service with the National Guard, Army Reserves, and United States Army. He is a graduate of such institutions as: United States Field Artillery School, Junior Officer Development School, Junior Officer Maintenance School, Nuclear, Biological and Chemical School, Combat Lifesaver School, Quartermaster Advance School, Observer Controller School, Combined Arms and Service Staff School, Military History Instructor School, Contracting Officer Representative School, Mobilization Officers School, Department of The Army Lean Six Sigma Black Belt School, Command and General Staff College and he has a Bachelor of Science degree in Homeland Security/Defense with the American Military University.

Col. Hagan also suffers from PTSD and TBI. He has as his stated mission to educate and encourage those who suffer from PTSD and TBI, as well as those who are in contact and communication with them.

July 12-14, 2018, 2:45pm

FaithBuilders 2018

Mary Baker Russell Music Hall
Pacific Lutheran University
12180 Park Avenue S.
Tacoma, WA 98447